DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to all people who want to change their lives, who want to take a step from where they are and those who want to escape from the burden of troubles.

PREFACE

It has been crossing the line of reality a thousand times. Many people born in different countries, races and societies; faced with many challenging phenomena in life. Reaching the extent of asking themselves that; what is a solution in this life? Lots of struggles keep on happening; in some cases; one may fail to continue and even give up. Different conflicting ideas on spiritual teachings, beliefs and faith keeps on tormenting humans life even cause conflicts within our societies and our minds. A question comes. For how long is this going to last? How long shall we keep on striving with the battles within our minds?

This book intends to bring hope, new beginning and victory over the mental fight. It is the answer that you have been waiting for all this time. It gives you the hands to wrap your endless flooding tears. It contains words with abundant knowledge as a spark that illuminates both physical and non-physical phenomena towards changing human life.

As the centre of knowledge, this book provides wisdom about the world. It leads to the rise of an incredible ability of thinking, uncovering the knowledge of what is seen and unseen, creating a devoted mind towards making a new step in life; choosing success and not poverty.

It provides teachings over the spiritual ideology and provides more encouragements for one to keep up in life as it encourages good life, knowing proper ways and making a better tomorrow.

It encourages the desire and deep understanding of the spiritual part of our lives, enhancing good spiritual choices with informed consent.

It builds up the desire to be called the son of God and not the son of the world because when called the son of God, it is more than possessing piles of gold and diamond for one becomes the heir/inheritor of Gods glory and magnificence.

The secrets of success and sources of failure; their outcomes and their solution are nothing less hidden. The knowledge from this book saves the people from becoming criminals in the societies.

It gives people a heart of not giving up on their dreams; encouraging them to be strong in any circumstance they come across. Human beings tend to come over many challenges that sometimes it reaches the extent of saying that: it is enough of all the sufferings, reaching the state of giving up in life, sometimes having the desire of being one of the dead as a solution to problems.

This book encourages you, giving you a way through which you may escape and survive even if you see that there is no hope. It gives you the third eye to perceive, view and focus towards a new beginning.

My dream is to change the world attitude; I have no magic power but; I have ideas that are essential for one to understand the world in general and set a foundation for him or her on ways of living in this world.

Let this book be like a white raven that drags a lost treasure and sends it to a better place. For all things that you are about to read in this book. I hope that a new beginning will be established upon your life with bright light upon your ways in this world.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Godfrey O. Busanji is a Tanzanian, creative and innovative. He was born on 21st March 1997. Being blessed with a profound gift of wisdom, he is ready to share with all people of all nations, cultures, and races the extraordinary ideas that entangle with reality.

He acquired his primary education at Rich Hill English Medium School during the first year of his studies and finally at Kasamwa Primary School for the remaining six years. Later on, he acquired his secondary education at The Lion of Judah Academy and high school education at Njombe Secondary School. He is currently in Medical school at Hubert Kairuki Memorial University in Dar es Salaam taking his first degree in Medicine.

“Our past makes us being able to say something today.” Through what he was able to learn in life, coming across different experiences; made him gain something that he may be able to reveal to the public today. He wrote this book when he was seventeen years old; by that time he had finished his secondary education. The insight learning through thoughts and reasoning was taking him to the idea of evolution and changes that is why he named this book THE BRILLIANT WAYS OF LIFE.

Because of several drawback factors, this book had to wait up to 2020 for some editing and its release.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I extend my special thanks to all who supported me in different ways during the preparation of this book.

I profoundly give my special gratitude to my father, Mr Oscar Busanji, and my mother, Ms Salome Makungu, for their outstanding support and encouragements toward the accomplishment of my dream.

I give my special thanks to Ms Nyumbi Makungu for her magnificent support. Ms Pendo Makungu; Mr David Busanji (my grandfather); Ms Mwajuma Makungu; Mr Geoffrey Oscar; Mr Ligwa Masasi; Mr David Oscar; Mr Gerard Oscar; Ms Everyne Oscar; and Mr Peter Mashauri, for their challenges, comments and support in different issues during this amusing adventure that I present to you today.

I will not be thankful if I forget my colleagues, my close friends, my teachers, and lecturers at Hubert Kairuki Memorial University and all institutions that I ever been. I grant my special thanks to my classmates in the medical university for all the time that we spent together, learning different things from one another, challenging and supporting one another in one way or another.

Above All. I give numerous thanks to God for his grace and guidance in writing this book until its completion.

TRANSFORMATION

It is what we see every second; what we think of and what we admire. Our eyes desire to see, sometimes what we have never seen and what our hands fancy to touch. Our minds strive to process, and our bodies come across. Possibly, it is what we have ever dreamt. Reality or fantasy; predicted, condemnation, past, present or future. All of these ideas are prone toward the term transformation.

Several meanings arise when one comes across this fourteen letter word transformation. Transformation is the change from within, I mean; coming apart from one's own self, with one's own ways of life, like crossing a bridge that is made up of strings; waving on the surface of one's eyes that flashback for a profile of change. It is the transformation that calls to better foundations of life.

When I was in the second year of my medical course at the university, I used to study as much as I could. It reached a time I had a lot of things to learn and a lot of notes to read, to the extent that I was not sure when and how I was going to accomplish reading all those notes. I sacrificed my time so that I may utilize it in studying. The time did not seem to be enough for me to reach the desired target while approaching my continuous assessment exams. So I thought of skipping some topics and details of the notes by not reading everything in the notes. It was at that point when I realized that, I could understand the skipped parts without reading them, by linking the concepts created within my mind that I derived from the notes that I read. I decided to use that style in combination with other different means of studying. Not relying on notes alone was my priority, making sure that my study style goes simultaneously with time. It was a point that I understood that; success needs one to make a sacrifice within sacrifices. When you decide to make changes; first, give sacrifice to God on what you are going to do, then; sacrifice yourself to do it, then; let your time be a sacrifice on doing it, then; sacrifice on the principles of doing it. That is what implies coming apart from your own self, with your own ways of life, like crossing a bridge that is made of strings; waving on the surface of your eyes that flashback for a profile of change.

The reality of transformation is not easy. That means; one needs a Lion's heart that expresses no fear. It is the time to collect all the pain inside one's heart; seeing the ruining future that still gives a chance for changes. It is the time to take a step upon the predictable on everything that comes across. When climbing a hill; one expects to reach up safely; seeing a problem while ascending causes a push back condition.

Whenever one comes across a situation, it is essential to understand it properly. We cannot assume that we are perfect and independent humans and ignore fact about the prevailing differences and how nature contributes to our destiny. Nature does contribute to one's destiny but does not determine a person's destiny. Do not push away what comes in front of you because you do not know the extent to which the world is preparing you today for the sake of tomorrow. Just use a simple understanding and face the situations because that is one path towards transformation. Do not overthink on the encountered challenges because the future comes up with different things that relate to your past.

Some ideas, concepts, and creativity tend to be of very high quality and very touching, but if who owns them does not expose them to the world, eventually will not be there anymore. It happens because the owners have not allowed transformation within their lives. I remember a great artist around our neighbourhood failing to move on with such a talent in those days. One might say that; “to some countries, there is no support over such things.” Despite everything; when you want your gift to be exposed and acknowledged by people. Do not be afraid. Show the world that you have a particular idea. Depending on how you express it, it will be recognized and accepted. A large number of people will know it. When you show your gift less devotedly, to fewer people, it will not be worthwhile despite being good work and your work will be forgotten. Do not fear to try. Sometimes we fear; not because we can't, but it is because of the depressed spirit inside us, governed with the history of repeated failures. It is simple to speak but hard to live in the reality of the word changes. Changes demand one to shut down the engine of fear, past bad memories about failures and start the engine of hope and strength over the new path, regardless of how the present phenomenon seems to be. Transformation is all about an intelligent trial. I encourage hope and strength because they are the enormous things that drive us toward success.

Under the installation of the new world of transformation, things are going to be more than how one can imagine. Burry down the scars from the past, transformation is like a troop's movement of no turning back. Take a perfect blade and slay your problems. There is no transformation on a weak hand; if you want changes, use your own hands.

Transformation is the star of success shining with a reddish light, giving a new face to a new beginning. Ask yourself what you can do to undergo a positive transformation. I discourage people who wait to be given their needs. "What a shame! A grown-up person with no disabilities is a beggar." Life is very fair, honestly; the way one lives makes it unfair. If you know that you need to be responsible, why can't you be? Do not complicate things than how they are. If you didn't know, then the day of light is today.

A change begins from the heart of a person and comes out to the environment of that person. Therefore be the one to decide, work hard and use your experience to draw yourself from the sea of problems. When you succeed; do not lose consciousness. Just know at the point you are is just a beginning. Finally, be on a final decision. A broken sword does not lose its identity; let the minor challenges not be the reason for your abstinence towards changes. Consequently, be ready to take a new step and be steadfast to cope with positive changes in your life.

TODAY

The fresh air is like heaven, home of eternity, the wind like tranquil harmonics on this day, the day that was waited for so long since the day that you walked on Earth. It is beyond human ability to understand why being considered on this day. It is a great opportunity when one wakes up in the morning healthy, seeing the beauty of the day, thinking of the daily routine. Some wish that at least they would have just a single chance of being healthy, even for one day, and enjoy the beauty of the land, even if it is only for some few hours. Unfortunately, they can't. It is sad, but it is a challenge that allows us to learn because we are the creatures linked to the desire of learning every day.

One man around the neighbourhood reached a point of using drugs because of the difficulties that he faced in life. He had no home; no relatives. He was a wanderer. His behaviour made him appear differently within a society. Being different makes you appear unique, for example; being a genius around people with ordinary minds. When you choose to be different and get caught in that difference, then it becomes hard for others to take you away from that difference. Drug abuse made him differently in a negative way. To him, everything was okay; he could sleep anywhere without caring, even in the pit. His garments smelled just like a walking pit; he had no idea of washing them though they were dirty.

Maybe he was faced with a lot of unanswered questions about his purpose on this Earth, ending up being like that. There are some of the things, circumstances or conditions in life that have got no answers. What I suggest is that; sometimes, accepting a defeat when there is no way, is one of the great methods toward coming up with a new way. Then, establishing a perspicuous recipe that would drive one towards great victory follows. I didn't say that you accept defeat. Failing one challenge in the past is not a reason for surrendering today.

Hope is like a drilling machine that would open a way; create a path through mountains toward your tomorrow.

Valuing your self is an inordinate determinant of the journey you began today. Don't give up and treat yourself as a nothing. In some situations, get to understand that; it is okay to be in a state that seems to be challenging. So; you have to find the key that would get yourself away from the challenges. There is always a way for something that exists on this Earth. There seems no way out, determines the dark that fills our minds.

It is your time to see how much fate has been favouring you. Your destiny has made you be where you are today; do your best to accomplish your mission. Today means reality and time to act, let your time be under control. Work in every day scilicet called today because that is the weapon against failure. Always remember that; a twisted rubber band does not form faults. If a twisted rubber band does not develop structural error, for that reason; be ready to try whatever might make you rise. You are not only the seeker of today; you are the founder of tomorrow and the judge of yesterday so, stand and defend your position like a soldier in a battle. Concentrate on your activities without wasting your time for nothing.
